1979 MARYLAND SOCCER PROSPECTUS

Once again the 1979 University of Maryland Soccer Team will feature a very strong defensive team with two excellent goaltenders but the Terps will be searching for more scoring power from their midfield and forward lines during the Fall drills. With six of eleven starters returning for the Terrapins, Coach Jim Dietsch believes that his team will be a serious contender for the Atlantic Coast Conference Crown.

The four starting fullbacks junior Craig Jackson, senior Scott Boddery, sophomore Jim Hudik and senior Chris Orsborne will be returning. Boddery was a 1st Team All-ACC selection and 2nd Team All-South selection and Hudik was named to the 2nd Team All-ACC squad. Senior Larry Howell and junior Sid Kaufman will again be splitting playing time in the goal this year, after recording four shutouts last season.

The midfield positions were hit last year with a rash of injuries. Junior Kenan McCoy will be returning to the starting line-up, along with sophomore John Carlson who was the only halfback to start every game for the Terrapins last season. Also challenging for a starting position on the halfback line will be junior Brian Barbazette who was hurt throughout the 1978 season and freshman red-shirt Chris Romett who also had to sit out the 1978 season due to injuries.

Replacing Bryan Kittelberger and Chris Miller, both 2nd Team All-ACC selections will be of one Coach Dietsch's chief concerns this Fall. The only starting forward returning is Ron McKeever who was also a 2nd Team All-ACC performer. Junior Brian Feeney will be eligible this Fall after transferring from Syracuse University and along with sophomores Pete Bourne and Mo Goldfarb will be in contention for the other starting forward position.

Once again Maryland has a grueling schedule that will not allow the Terrapins any lapses during the 1979 season. Clemson, North Carolina and N.C. State will again be their chief competition for the ACC Crown while the Terrapins will also meet formidable non-conference powers Penn State, Howard, George Washington, Navy and James Madison.

COLONEL TOM FIELDS

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

MARYLAND EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

Colonel Fields, a former Maryland All-American distance runner took over his duties at Maryland in 1970 and the success of his program has been phenomenal.

He enrolled at Maryland as a freshman track star in 1937 and went on to win six Southern Conference Championships, as well as All-American honors in 1940.

The work of Fields, with over 1,700 contributors, is imperative for the overall success of the Maryland Athletic Program. The contributions have not only enabled the University's self-sustaining program to remain just above the break-even point, but enabled the Terrapins to regain their National prestige in just about every sport.

DR. JOHN SAMPSON TOLL

PRESIDENT, UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

A former chairman and professor of physics on the College Park Campus, President Toll has, in his own words, "come home" to the University of Maryland after thirteen years as president of the State University of New York at Stony Brook. Dr. Toll first came to the University of Maryland in 1953 when, at age 29, he became professor and chairman of what was then a six-man physics department. A decade later the department gained more than seventy members, including an astronomy division, and a national reputation for excellence. He is also credited with helping to secure funds for the creation of the University's renown cyclotron.

Dr. Toll earned his undergraduate degree in physics with highest honors from Yale. His advanced physics degrees were earned at Princeton. BIG BROTHER - LITTLE BROTHER SOCCER PROGRAM

We have an important Big Brother-Little Brother Program within our Soccer Team. Each new player (Little Brother) will be assigned to an upper classman (Big Brother) on the team with a similar major interest.

SOME OF THE DUTIES OF THE BIG BROTHER ARE AS FOLLOWS:

(a) Help your Little Brother make the adjustments to the University of Maryland.

(b) If necessary, supervise him during registration & pre-registration.

(c) Take him to purchase his books and other supplies.

(d) Show him where his individual classes are.

(e) Assist him in social matters; expose him to the various social activities on campus.

(f) Give me, in writing, every grade the Little Brother received during his first semester. This will be done in a monthly report so I can see any signs of trouble in his courses and get him a tutor, if necessary.

ACADEMIC ENVIRONMENT

The University of Maryland is a member of the American Universities and Colleges which selects the top fifty university systems in the country. It is currently the seventh largest university in the nation--and, with such size, comes quality. This means better facilities, not only in the day-to-day classroom, but also in the research and faculty staff. Our teacher staff consists of over 6,000 personnel -- which brings our student/professor ratio down to 16-1. This allows us to offer a degree in a variety of fields (122) on the undergraduate level, as well as on the graduate level (58 graduate programs, 53 doctoral programs.) With such great flexibility in the curriculum, you also have a flexibility in your desired course of study which you may not enjoy at many other schools.

Not only is your education at the University of Maryland highly flexible, but it is also one of high quality, developed with many years of experience. Our school for Dentistry is the finest dental school in the world; the School of Pharmacy is the third oldest in the nation; and the College of Agriculture is the third oldest in the Western Hemisphere. The University of Maryland is rich in experience and history, but also has its eye to the future in all fields. The Laser Ranging Retro Reflector experiment placed on the moon by the Apollo II astronauts was developed by a group of scientists headed by a University of Maryland professor. Recently our College of Education won the "Distinguished Achievement Award for Excellence in Teacher Education." This award is given each year to only one university. This campus also has the world's largest sectored isochronous Cyclotron which is available to students.

In many respects the College Park campus is a city of young people with all the advantages, excitement and problems of a community. While the focus of the campus community is on its academic and intellectual activities, the campus has its own daily newspaper, its own police department, an 18 hole golf course, hotel, stores, movie house, theatre, art gallery, pub, bowling alley, tennis courts and swimming pool. It is a Georgian-Colonial campus with nearly 200 buildings spaced across a rolling 1300 acre park-like setting.

The facilities, faculty, history, and flexibility are not our only strengths. The University of Maryland is totally committed to the individual student, regardless of whether he is a freshman or a candidate for a Ph.D. A full-time advisor is provided by our Athletic Department for personal and vocational counseling for student athletes.

We, at the University of Maryland, are extremely proud of our academic programs and will continue to live up to the outstanding academic record we have set.
